Andre and Lukas

Andre and Lukas are flatmates. Andre has just arrived home.

Andre: Hey Lukas, how's it going?

Lukas: I'm good thanks, so how did it go?

Andre: Well, I think it went ok, I was really nervous and there was a train strike so I only just arrived on time!

Lukas: So what did you have to do? I was watching that hospital show on TV. I don't know how you do your job. I'm too squeamish.

Andre: I really love my job at the care home, but hopefully if I pass the assessment today I can finally become a nurse, just like I was back home. I had to show them my skills, measure out medication correctly, assess the patient, and suggest a diagnosis. The main thing I was focused on was communicating well with the patient, but I'm used to doing that anyway.

Lukas: Wow, do they have real life patients too?

Andre: No, they are actors but they were quite realistic.

Lukas: Sounds like a job for me! How do I apply?

Use the highlighted words in a sentence.
